

Dear Basketball Officials,

We are pleased to announce an upcoming Basketball Officials Camp, scheduled for June 6th from 7:30 a.m. until 6:00 p.m., at Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa

This camp is designed to provide high-level training and professional development in a competitive and supportive environment. This camp will feature varsity basketball teams and an outstanding staff of expert evaluators and officials, creating an ideal setting for learning, evaluation, and growth.

The camp offers officials a unique opportunity to work live games with experienced varsity athletes while receiving instruction, feedback, and mentoring from some of the most respected officials in the region. Our staff includes seasoned veterans with extensive high school and collegiate officiating experience, all dedicated to helping participants improve mechanics, positioning, communication, rules knowledge, and overall game management.

Participants can expect:

Live-game officiating with varsity basketball teams with observer's from both the IGHS AU and the IHSAA as well as multiple assigner's (5), official Associations and state observers.

Chuck Brittain, Pete Peterson and many conference assigners will be in attendance.

On-court instruction and post-game evaluations

Classroom and breakout sessions covering rules interpretations, mechanics, and professionalism

Personalized feedback from knowledgeable and highly accomplished officials.

A positive, educational environment focused on growth and confidence-building

This one-day camp is ideal for officials seeking to advance their skills, prepare for the upcoming season, or take the next step toward higher-level assignments. Whether you are a developing official or an experienced referee looking to sharpen your performance, this camp will provide valuable insight and meaningful experience.

The cost for the camp will be $100, and you may register using the following:
